

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake If You Follow This Norwich Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys. If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Norwich. Follow the advice of a Norwich citizen and be cured yourself. Mrs. Charles H. Whaley, 3 Treadwell Avenue, Norwich, Conn., says: "Ever since my first experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, some six years ago, I have valued them highly. Their use has saved me a great deal of suffering. My experience with various remedies has taught me that many of them while doing good in one way will cause distress in another. Such is not true of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured from N. D. Sevin & Son's drug store. They act solely upon the kidneys, and do not affect the stomach, heart or other organs in any way. I consider it a pleasure to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Posters: Kidney Pills, Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—And take no other.

Frightful Fate Averted.
"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee," writes Frank Dierbeck, Kellier, Minn., without Doan's Kidney Pills, which soon cured me. Infallible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures burns, scalds, old sores, boils, skin eruptions. World's best for piles. 50c. at The Lee & Osgood Co's.

Mr. F. G. Fritz, Ontario, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble. Foley's Orino Laxative is mild, pleasant and effective and cures habitual constipation. The Lee & Osgood Co."

Olympic Theater.

The moving picture entertainment of last evening was an exceedingly good one, the subjects of the pictures being of an excellent character, pleasing a large audience. The new feature is that the pictures are clear and sharp and the machine does not flicker, making the best show in town.

BROADWAY THEATER.

The Girl from Rector's.

The advance agents of theatrical attractions display little formality in their invitations asking President Taft to attend their plays. Upon reaching Washington they communicate with the executive secretary, simply saying they would like to have the former grace the audience. In the envelope is enclosed coupons for a box for the secretary. He invariably attends the production on the opening night and if he likes it the president comes some day later in the week. In the event does not please him he sends Mr. Taft's regrets.

In New York, however, the system is different. When Mr. Taft reaches that city he is generally besieged by scores of press agents with their invitations. In consequence he declines them all and in the event he decides to attend a performance he sends his check for a box. He visited the Metropolitan in February when The Girl from Rector's was in the midst of its great run at Weber's Music Hall. The press representative knew the president would not accept an invitation in the formal way, so he simply tried a new method. He wrote a note in which he enclosed coupons for a box and informed the president that if he cared to attend the play to send his check for $20. The executive was so taken with the novel invitation that he accepted and enjoyed the piece immensely.

The Girl from Rector's comes to the Broadway theater tonight.

BREED THEATER.

The Pay Car, Sensational Story of Train Wreckers.

A wonderful picture of great merit is now being shown at the Breed theater, and judging from the interest shown by the audience, it is a most satisfactory one. This powerful story is one that brings the public in direct touch with railroad life, and the many scenes of the ponderous locomotives chugging at close range are at once interesting and instructive, while the story is well represented by some of the best talent obtainable. Three other pictures are on the programme and some excellent comedy and drama is included.

Miss Edith Darnell, lyric soprano, sang the pretty illustrated song Garden of Roses, with handsome slides to accompany it.

Mrs. Merrill's Concert.

The famous "Diet Song" from Cavalleria Rusticana is a feature of the concert programme tomorrow night. Senior Gueyari appears as Turiddu, Madame Figue as Santuzza, and Mrs. Merrill as Lola.

Senior Gueyari's grand morning concert took place at the St. James' hall on the 5th inst., and it was a decided success. The hall was full in every corner, and the sympathetic "beneficence" was recalled over and over again.

Senior Gueyari is an artist of exceptional abilities. He belongs to the refined Spanish school; he has a sweet, rich and melodious voice, which captivates and amazes the most unmusical audience, and he is justly considered to be the successor of his eminent and lamented compatriot, Gayarre, who created such a deep impression amongst the English public during his engagement at Covent garden some years ago. The Salon (London).

"Katherine Moeck Figue, the world-famous soprano, entranced the audience, and the applause was so deafening that she was obliged to render several encores."—The Lawrence (Mass.) Sun.

Milwaukee can boast of one of the oldest, if not the oldest woman suffragists in the world. She is Mrs. Danforth Willard Blanchard, who lives with her niece, Mrs. J. B. Booth, and who will celebrate her 90th birthday anniversary on October 2.
